Copy of letter from Brigadier N.V.Bal, Commander Mycol, Guntakal, dated 21st September 1948.

On behalf of all ranks under my command I desire to bring to your notice our deep appreciation of the untiring efforts made by Col. P.V.Karamchandani, District Medical officer, Bellary and his staff at Bellary and by Major Thimmappiah and his staff at Hospet, for the treatement and evacuation of our casualties from the Hospet Sector.

The assistance rendered thus was invaluable and no praise is high enough for their magnificient performance in saving so many lives.

The medical staff at Kurnool has similarly been helping us in all possible ways.

It is not possible for me to write to each individual. Will you kindly therefore convey our gratitude to all concerned.

I am ~~send~~ sending a copy of this letter to General A.A.Rudhra CBE, General officer Commanding Madras Area and to Col. Karamchadani and to Major Thimappiah personally.
